STOLYPIN DIES, TRACK MEN

Man In Whom Czar Intrusted Govern ment Meets End In Great Agony. In Service of His State and Nation Since 1899.

Kiev, Russia, Sept. 19.-Stolypin prime minister of Russia, who was shot during a gala performance at the opera house last Thursday night, is enough to withstand the effects of at internal hemorrhage which the doc tors in attendance were unable to cope

The dving man suffered intense agony, during which he would mur frequently, "Death-death creeping ou."

Stolypin first came into prominence as the governor of Saratoff. It was there in 1905 that the first attempt was made to kill him. Three shots were fired at him by a Terrorist assas sin, but he was not hit. Speaking later of his own service in this post he told how it had been his aim to cultivate a class of peasant land owners and to give them real weight in the local government of their communes. He was reproached for estable lishing a new university in this prov He replied that it was only by introducing the higher education into the provinces that the work of deveoping law and order could be success fully advanced in Russia.

In May, 1906, the czar called him to St. Petersburg and made him minister of the interior in the Goremykin min istry. He only remained three months in this post, but 'hat was long enough for him to be savagely assailed on the floor of the douma as a tyrant, a mur derer, a butcker, a monster of cruelty unparallelled in history. The fact was be came into office with the risks wave of revolutionary terrorism, whi deluged Russia with blood and filler it with ruin from Arkangel to the Crimea. He opposed terrorism to ter rorism. The police and soldiers had free hand as respects repressive meas ures in the disturbed districts, and where suspects were convicted of rev olutionary or terrorist crimes executions, wholesale executions, were mercilessly carried out.

In July, 1906, he became prime min ister, and despite annual rumors of his impending downfall he weathered every political storm and remained at the time of his death more firmly entrenched in office than ever before.

Stolypin was born in 1863, was educated at the University of St. Peters burg, graduating in 1884; served in the ministries of the interior and agriculture, was made marshal of the provincial nobility in 1899, vice governor of Grodno in 1902 and governor of Saratoff in 1903.

Candidate on Republican Ticket. Primaries Sept. 30. Your Support Earnestly Solicited. 68eitf

JOHN N. SHARPSTEEN.

To the Republicans of Wayne Co.: I take this means of announcing myself as a candidate for the nomi-nation of Prothonotary at the pri-maries, Sept. 30, 1911.

To most of you I am known personally. During my seventeen years of service as a clerk in the Hones-dale postoffice my efforts have been to perform my duties faithfully and courteously to the patrons of the of-fice and the public generally. To the voters with whom I am not personally acquainted I would say that, since a severe injury sustain-ed by my father a few years before his accidental death when I was sixteen years old I have tried to make an honest living. My birthplace was in Texas township, district No. 4, Wayne county. My school days were limited to the district school and the Honesdale High school. As a boy of eleven years I spent my summers slate picking on the Delaware & Hudson dock and attended school during the winter. I also spent several summers working on a farm in Cherry Ridge.

After school I entered the office of the Honesdale Iron Works, known now as the Guerney Electric Elevator Co., where I stayed a number of years and later entered the Honesdale postoffice serving two years un-der William F. Briggs. I then went to the Carbondale Lumber company to the Carbondale Lumber company as a bookkeeper, remaining with them until the appointment as postmaster of Miss Mary E. Gerety, who later became the wife of Hon. C. A. McCarty. In June, 1896, I returned to the Honesdale postoffice where I have been employed ever since. In coming before the people and asking their assistance and vote at the coming primaries, let me say that I am ing primaries, let me say that I am no tool of any boss or bosses. I simply desire in common with every American citizen to better my condi-tion. Your support will be appre-ciated and if nominated and elected I will devote all my time and attention to the duties of the office to which I aspire and will resign my present position. As the son of the late Newton Sharpsteen, veteran of the Civil war, I have an interest in and sympathy with all veterans.

Most cordially yours,

J. N. Sharpsteen.
